

Saturday July 17th

Log on to the Victorian page www.adsna.info

0800 - 0900 Registration, Arrival Tea & Coffee with Trade Display

0900 - 1100 SESSION ONE

Day Surgery in a new Decade: Malignant Hyperthermia

Dr Phil Ragg, Deputy Director Anaesthesia and Pain Management Royal Children's Hospital.
Dr Ragg will present a case study. Discussion surrounding diagnosis and management of Malignant Hyperthermia.
Questions at end of session.

Day Surgery in a new Decade: Anaphylaxis management

Dr Greg Emery, Consultant Anaesthetist .
Dr Emery will present on the diagnosis and management of anaphylaxis.
Questions at end of session.

Day Surgery in a new Decade: LA toxicity

Dr Mal Tyers, Specialist Anaesthetist
Dr Tyers will discuss how to recognize and deal with emergencies related to local anaesthetics

Day Surgery in a new Decade: Management of children in the Day Surgery with Autism

Dr Liam Broad, Consultant Anaesthetist.
Dr Broad will discuss how we can manage these children in our facilities
Questions at end of session

1100 -1130 Morning Tea with Trade Display

1130 - 1300 SESSION TWO

Day Surgery in a new Decade: how are you recycling?

Dr Stephen Lightfoot, MBBS FANZCA MEM, Specialist anaesthetist, NSW Councillor Australian Conservation Foundation
Stephen is passionate about the waste that we generate in our facilities and how we can manage it.

Day Surgery in a new Decade: 'Ethics of donating medical supplies'

Dr. Phoebe Mainland: Consultant Anaesthetist
Dr Mainland will present on the topic of "ethics of overseas aid"

1300 - 1400 Lunch with Trade Display

1400 - 1500 SESSION THREE

Day Surgery in a new Decade: Is your petticoat showing?

Terry McAuley, Sterilisation & Infection Control Consultant, STEAM Consulting
Terry will look at the current standards and reflect on everyday practices observed in healthcare facilities that need to be updated for the 21st Century.

Day Surgery in a new Decade: Modern Awards

Sascha Cook, SIAG
What does this mean for us? Do our EBA's cover us? Are we ok?

Day Surgery in a new Decade: National Registration

Elizabeth Leigh, Nurse Policy Officer, Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)

1500 - 1630 SESSION FOUR

Day surgery in a new Decade: coping with the changes

Mark McKeon, Celebrity Speaker
Mark is Australia's leading writer and speaker on achieving personal success and creating a work life balance. He will share with us how we can look forward into the new decade.

1630 - 1830 Join us for refreshments with a live band to continue networking and unwind

(updated June 29th, 2010)

NB: change in time

NB:
Speaker
confirmed