Newsletter - September 2010

Where is the year going?

Our State annual conference was very successful with over 350 delegates and trade personnel. Those of us who could stay back to enjoy the band and refreshments were able to put our newly learnt work/life balance advice into practice. It was also an opportunity to acknowledge and thank our outgoing Administration Assistant, Linda Evans for the thousands of labels, name tags, flyers, certificates and forms which she has printed for us over the years. Feedback from everyone was very positive and we look forward to what we can offer in 2011.

We are very excited about our next Members meet+ which will be held at Corymbia House Day Hospital which is at the site of the Dandenong Surgicentre, the first accredited day surgery in Australia. This will be a great chance to see its dramatic makeover. It is very important that we receive an RSVP via fax or email so we can prepare your certificate with CPD points and confirm catering.

We will be holding our AGM during the session. This is an opportunity to thank the outgoing committee members. We will also be able to accept nominations for new committee members. We would love to hear if you or your colleagues would like to join this dynamic committee. The meetings are monthly and meet in the city over dinner and a favourite drink. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you would like more information.

So what do you need to do?

- Log on to the Victorian page of the ADSNA website www.adsna.info to download the latest membership form for you or your colleagues if you are not currently financial
- Log on to the Victorian page of the ADSNA website www.adsna.info to download the AGM nomination form for you or your colleagues to join our dynamic committee
- Pin up the flyer in your tea room and encourage as many of your colleagues to attend as well
